

OUR STORY

Pacific County Immigrant Support (PCIS) incorporated February 5, 2018 as a nonprofit organization. We meet with families affected by ICE arrests to learn their needs, and empower them with information about their rights and available resources.

After a family member bonds out of the detention center, PCIS continues to support the family to assist with the legal process until their case is finalized. There is a huge backlog in the courts and it takes many years for each person's case to complete.

We take time to get to know the families and fill their most urgent needs.

PCIS promotores provide information about resources that are available for support and help community members to apply for assistance.

“ MISSION STATEMENT

Pacific County Immigrant Support provides assistance and advocates for immigrants in Southwest Washington.

TESTIMONIAL

“PCIS has helped and supported my family in many ways thanks to people who donate to our needs. I received three payments from PCIS to help us improve our economic situation in this pandemic. We are very grateful to God and to all the members of the organization.”

TESTIMONIAL

“Our family was left out of the economic stimulus that the federal government gave out, our situation was already difficult before the pandemic due to the 2018 arrest of my husband by ICE.

Thanks to the great help that PCIS gave us we have been able to continue fighting to get out and go ahead. Thanks to all the people who donate so that organizations such as PCIS can help us, we will always be grateful to God for putting on our path people who, even without knowing us, give us their support, may God fill them with blessings.”
